New directors, officers and employees will be provided with a copy of this Policy and will be educated about its importance.

3.3 Interaction with other policies

This Policy should be read in conjunction with our other policies including Lisle Village's Code of Conduct.

4. PROTECTED DISCLOSURE

4.1 Reportable Conduct

The Policy is provided as a practical tool for helping Lisle Village to identify wrongdoing that may not be uncovered unless there is a safe and secure means for disclosing such wrongdoing.

Lisle Village expects and encourages individuals who detects or becomes aware on reasonable grounds of circumstances of Reportable Conduct involving Lisle Village to initiate disclosure under this Policy.

You may make a disclosure under this Policy if you have reasonable grounds to suspect that a Lisle Village director, officer, employee, contractor, supplier, tenderer or a related person of Lisle Village has engaged in conduct that is related to the misconduct or improper state of affairs or circumstances implicating Lisle Villages, or any of its subsidiaries.

Reasonable grounds means that a reasonable person in your same position would suspect the information indicates that person involved with Lisle Village has engaged in conduct that is related to misconduct, an improper state of affairs or a breach of the law. A mere allegation with no supporting information is not likely to be considered as reasonable grounds, however a Whistleblower does not need to prove their allegations and can still qualify for protection even if their disclosure turns out to be incorrect.

Reportable Conduct includes behaviour or conduct that constitutes:

- (a) an offence against, or a contravention of, the Corporations Legislation;
- (b) an offence against any other law of the Commonwealth that is punishable by imprisonment for a period of 12 months or more;
- (c) dishonest, fraudulent, or corrupt behaviour including misappropriation and mismanagement of Lisle Village resources, funds, insolvent trading, fraudulent behaviour, failure to comply with statutory accounting and reporting requirements;
- (d) illegal activities including breaches of state and federal criminal and/or civil legislation, harassment or intimidation, money laundering offences, terrorism financing, drug use, falsification of accounts and exploitation of legal loopholes;
- (e) unethical behaviour or behaviour that is otherwise in breach of public trust, breach of the Code of Conduct, or other Lisle Village policies. This includes inconsistencies in internal recording systems, alterations to company documents, abuse of authority and breaches of directors' duties;
- (f) behaviour that may cause financial or non-financial damage to Lisle Village or damage to Lisle Village's reputation, including financial irregularities, abuse of property and environment;
- (g) behaviour that endangers or may endanger the health and safety of individuals such as the presence of improper work practices;
- (h) unlawful harassment, coercion, discrimination, victimisation or bullying that does not form part of a work-related grievance excluded under this Policy;

- (i) a danger to the public or the financial system, including conduct that indicates a significant risk to public safety or the stability of those systems even if it does not involve a breach of a particular law; and
- (j) a matter prescribed by the Regulations.

4.2 Personal work-related grievances

Personal work-related grievances are circumstances related to your employment that tend to have implications for you personally but do not have any significant implications for Lisle Village or relate to conduct that would qualify as Reportable Conduct.

Personal work-related grievances should be raised with your manager or supervisor at first instance. However, such grievances may not be protected under this Policy. For example, disclosing an interpersonal conflict or workplace decisions that do not involve a breach of workplace laws are unlikely to be protected under this Policy. On the other hand, a disclosure which is a personal work-related grievance/s will be protected under this Policy if:

- (a) the disclosure includes information about misconduct, or information about misconduct includes or is accompanied by a personal work-related grievance (i.e. mixed disclosure);
- (b) the Whistleblower seeks legal advice or representation about the operation of this Policy and the Whistleblower protections under the Australian Whistleblower Laws;
- (c) the grievance has significant implications for the Company (or any other company) that does not relate to the Whistleblower;
- (d) the Whistleblower suffers from or is threatened with detriment for making a disclosure;
- (e) the disclosure relates to conduct referred to in sections 4.1(a), (b), (i) and (j).

False disclosures could have significant effects on Lisle Village's reputation and the reputations of its directors, officers and employees and could also cause a considerable waste of resources. Any deliberate false reporting of purported Protected Disclosure will not qualify for protection under this Policy and will be treated as a serious disciplinary matter.

5. DISCLOSURE OF REPORTABLE CONDUCT: MAKING A REPORT

There are several avenues for you to make disclosure if you become aware of any behaviour that you consider on reasonable grounds to be Reportable Conduct under this Policy. In order to rely upon the Whistleblower protections, you must make a disclosure directly to one of the Eligible Recipients set out in this section. A Whistleblower qualifies for protection under this Policy and the Australian Whistleblower Law from the time they make the disclosure, regardless of whether the Whistleblower or the Eligible Recipient is aware that the disclosure qualifies for protection.

In order to identify and address wrongdoing as early as possible, Lisle Village encourages Whistleblowers' to discuss and report your concerns to your direct manager or supervisor. If you feel unable to raise the Reportable Conduct with your direct manager or supervisor, you are entitled to discuss and report your concerns to other Eligible Recipient/s.

Whistleblowers always have the option to remain anonymous when making a disclosure to any of the Eligible Recipients and will be subject to the protections of section 7 of this Policy.

If a disclosure comes from an email address from which the person's identity cannot be determined, and the discloser does not identify themselves in the email, it will be treated as an anonymous disclosure. While the Company will not investigate the identity of a Whistleblower of an anonymous Protected Disclosure, it is the Whistleblower's obligation to manage their anonymity in submitting a Protected Disclosure anonymously. Neither the Company, its officers or employees nor the Authorised Protected Disclosure Officer shall be liable if the Whistleblower's identity is, or becomes, readily ascertainable.

If a Whistleblower chooses to disclose Reportable Conduct anonymously, this may hinder the ability of the Company to fully investigate the matter. Accordingly, the Company encourages Whistleblowers to provide contact details to assist in any investigation into the matter.

Lisle Village will investigate all matters the subject of a disclosure as soon as practicable after the disclosure has been received by Lisle Village. Upon receipt of a report, Lisle Village will assess whether the disclosure received falls within the scope of the Policy and requires a formal, in-depth investigation.

6.1 Investigation

- (a) the nature and scope of the investigation, including whether to conduct an internal investigation or appoint an independent external third party;
- (b) the person(s) that should lead the investigation;

Where the report has been made anonymously, Lisle Village will investigate based on the information provided. In all circumstances Lisle Village will ensure that the investigation is conducted in an objective and fair manner having regard to the nature of the alleged Reportable Conduct.

The nature of the investigation report (and whether it will be available to the discloser) will be assessed on a case by case basis according to the nature and circumstances of the allegation. An investigation report (if appropriate) will be prepared for the Lisle Village Board.

Where appropriate, the Whistleblower will be advised on the progress of the report and investigation. With your consent Lisle Village may also allocate a support person for you within the organisation. Lisle Village strongly enforces the protections outlined in section 7 below.

During the course of the investigation, management will determine whether to stand down the person against whom the allegations have been made until the issue is resolved. Lisle Village will endeavour to provide support to the person/s subject to the disclosure including ensuring procedural fairness is abided by, and any assistance programs are made available.

6.2 Keeping the discloser informed

Each disclosure will be acknowledged within a reasonable period after it has been received provided the discloser can be contacted. Where possible Lisle Village endeavours to provide each Whistleblower with updates and be kept informed of the progress and outcome of the investigation of his/her disclosure.

6.3 Record keeping and information sharing procedures

Lisle Village will maintain a register of Whistleblower Disclosures, a copy of any investigation report and actions taken in response to the report. To ensure confidentiality in accordance with section 7 below, Lisle Village has implemented record keeping and information sharing procedures to ensure:

- (a) all paper and electronic documents and other materials relating to the disclosures and investigations (if any) are stored securely;
- (b) all information relating to a disclosure or investigation (if any) can only be accessed by those directly involved in managing and investigating;
- (c) only a restricted number or people who are directly involved in handling and investigating a disclosure are made aware of a discloser's identity or information that is likely to lead to the identification of the discloser; and
- (d) communication and documents relating to an investigation are not sent to an email address or printer that can be accessed by other staff.

The unauthorised release of information without the Whistleblower's consent to any person not involved in the investigation (other than the Board) is a breach of this Policy, subject to any requirements of applicable law.

7. COMPANY SUPPORT AND FAIR TREATMENT OF EMPLOYEES

Lisle Village will ensure your confidentiality in respect to all matters raised under this Policy. In all circumstances, Lisle Village is committed to ensuring that individuals that make a disclosure will be treated fairly and will not suffer any detriment.

Whistleblowers that make a Protected Disclosure must not be personally disadvantaged by dismissal, demotion, any form of harassment, discrimination or current or future bias or unfavourable treatment as a result of submitting a Protected Disclosure.

If a Whistleblower is subjected to unfavourable treatment as a result of submitting a Protected Disclosure, the Whistleblower should inform an Authorised Protected Disclosure Officer immediately.

7.1 Protection against detrimental conduct and/or victimisation

In accordance with our Code of Conduct, Lisle Village is committed to ensuring all reasonable steps are undertaken to ensure that you are protected against any detrimental conduct in your employment or relationship with the company. Lisle Village will take all reasonable steps to protect individual Whistleblowers against retaliation. This may involve gathering information from the Whistleblower regarding:

- (a) the risk of their identity becoming known;
- (b) who they fear might cause detriment to them;
- (c) whether they are any existing conflicts or problems in the work place; and
- (d) whether there have already been threats to cause detriment.

Examples of detrimental treatment you will be protected from includes dismissal, termination of employment, demotion, harassment, discrimination, disciplinary action, unlawful discrimination, bias, threats or other unfavourable treatment connected with making a disclosure.

If you experience any detrimental treatment as a result of making a report or disclosing behaviour under this Policy, or you are concerned about how the Policy has been applied to you, Lisle Village encourages you to inform an Authorised Protection Disclosure Officer or any other officer or senior manager of Lisle Village.

Lisle Village takes any breach of this Policy seriously and any breach or unfair treatment of a Whistleblower will result in disciplinary actions against the offenders. However, Lisle Village retains the ability to raise matters outside of the disclosure made by the Whistleblower that arise in the ordinary course of their employment or engagement such as ordinary performance reviews/management or unrelated misconduct concerns.

A Whistleblower is entitled to seek compensation and other remedies through the courts if they suffer loss, damage or injury because of their Protected Disclosure and Lisle Village failed to take reasonable precautions and exercise due diligence to prevent the detrimental conduct. Lisle Village encourages Whistleblowers to seek independent legal advice first.

7.2 Protection of your identity and confidentiality

Information received from the Whistleblower (or information that could lead to identification of the Whistleblower) will be treated strictly as confidential and will not be shared unless the Whistleblower has provided consent (in writing), Lisle Village is required or compelled by law to do so or it is appropriate to disclose the information to a regulator under legislation.

Lisle Village will ensure that, where it is required to investigate a disclosure, it will take reasonable steps to reduce the risk of revealing the identity of the Whistleblower. Any disclosure of information that may lead to the identity of the Whistleblower being disclosed will be made on a strict confidential basis.

All files, investigations and disclosures will be retained in a secure location. Where this information is unauthorised and released to persons not directly involved, it will be a breach of this policy.

Once a disclosure is received under this Policy, subject to compliance with any legal obligations, Lisle Village will only reveal the identity of a Whistleblower or information likely to identify a Whistleblower if:

- (a) the Whistleblower consents to disclosure of identity;
- (b) it is reasonably necessary for the effective investigation of the matter (although all steps will be taken to reduce the risk of revealing the Whistleblower's identity);
- (c) the concern is reported to ASIC, APRA, the Tax Commissioner or the Australian Federal Police (AFP); or
- (d) the concern is reported to the Commissioner of Taxation if the disclosure relates to the tax affairs of Lisle Village or an Associate of Lisle Village; or
- (e) the concern is raised with a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or legal representation about the operation of the Australian Whistleblower Laws.

No person at Lisle Village may disclose or produce to a court or tribunal any information or documents which discloses the identity of a Whistleblower (or is likely to reveal the identity of the Whistleblower) without seeking the advice of counsel.

Breaches of confidentiality or release of information under this Policy will be taken extremely seriously and will be subject to the disciplinary processes of Lisle Village. Further, any individual or entity who discloses the identity of a Whistleblower who has elected to remain anonymous faces criminal penalties, civil penalties as well as disciplinary proceedings. To lodge a complaint about a breach of confidentiality, a Whistleblower may contact the General Manager at Lisle Village or contact an outside regulator, such as ASIC, APRA or the ATO.

Further protections are provided under the Australian Whistleblower Laws subject to certain conditions being met. For more information about these laws, see the information available on the ASIC website and the ATO website.

7.3 Protections under the Corporations Act

The Corporations Act provides certain immunities where the individual is an 'eligible whistleblower' and the Whistleblower has reasonable grounds to suspect the information disclosed concerns misconduct or an improper state of affairs relating to Lisle Village or a related body or subsidiary. A disclosure must be made to one of the individuals outlined in this Policy.

Where these circumstances exist, the following protections will apply:

- (a) the individual Whistleblower is immune from any civil, criminal or administrative legal action for making the disclosure, including disciplinary action relating to the conduct of making the disclosure;
- (b) no contractual or other remedy may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised, against the person on the basis of the disclosure;
- (c) subject to certain conditions, information reported is not admissible in evidence in criminal proceedings or those involving a penalty against the Whistleblower except in relation to false information;
- (d) anyone who causes or threatens to cause detriment to a Whistleblower or another due to a report or belief that a report has been made, may be guilty of an offence and may be liable for damages; and
- (e) subject to limited exceptions summarised in this Policy, the person to whom the Protected Disclosure is made must not disclose the substance of the Protected Disclosure, the Whistleblower's identity or information likely to lead to identification of the Whistleblower.

If the person receiving the Protected Disclosure discloses the substance or identity of the Whistleblower or the report without consent, to anyone except ASIC, APRA, the Australian Federal Police or a legal practitioner, they will commit an offence.

7.4 Protections under the Taxation Administration Act

Where disclosure is made in accordance with the Taxation Administration Act, a Whistleblower will be protected by certain immunities provided for under that Act. The protections include the following:

- (a) the Whistleblower is not subject to any civil, criminal or administrative liability (including disciplinary action) for making the disclosure;
- (b) no contractual or other remedies may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised, against the Whistleblower for making the disclosure;
- (c) where the disclosure was made to the Commissioner of Taxation, the reported information is not admissible against the Whistleblower in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, except where the proceedings are concerned with whether the information is false;
- (d) unless the Whistleblower has acted unreasonably, a Whistleblower cannot be ordered to pay costs in any legal proceedings in relation to a disclosure;

- (e) anyone who causes or threatens to cause detriment to a Whistleblower or another person in the belief or suspicion that a report has been made, or may have been made, proposes to or could be made, may be guilty of an offence and liable to pay damages;
- (f) a Whistleblower's identity cannot be disclosed to a Court or tribunal except where considered necessary; and
- (g) the person receiving the disclosure commits an offence if they disclose the substance of the disclosure or the Whistleblower's identity, without the Whistleblower's consent, to anyone except the Commissioner of Taxation, the Australian Federal Police or a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the disclosure.

7.5 Protections do not extend to the Whistleblower's conduct

Despite the protections for making a disclosure in section 7.3 and 7.4 above, the Whistleblower is not protected from civil, criminal, contractual or administrative liability (including disciplinary action) for any of his or her conduct which may be revealed in connection with the Reportable Conduct the subject of the Protected Disclosure (other than the conduct of making the disclosure itself). However, if the Whistleblower discloses such conduct and actively cooperates in the investigation in which they may be implicated, there may be some cases where the fact they have made a report will be taken into account as a mitigating factor when determining actions which may be taken against them.
